

John R. Graham

John R. Graham is Director of Health Care Studies at the Pacific Research Institute. He is the author of the U. S. Index of Health Ownership, the only project to rank all 50 states' health laws and regulations according to free-market principles; and the editor of a book addressing What States Can Do to reform Health Care: A Free Market Primer, to which he contributed a chapter on pharmaceutical cost containment.

He is also the primary author of the monthly Health Policy Prescriptions series, which addresses national health reform, and has written numerous articles covering topics as diverse as intellectual property law, financing of hospitals, Health Savings Accounts, for periodicals including the Wall Street Journal and the Washington Post.

Graham also writes the Healthy California series of Briefing papers, the most recent of which addressed Governor Schwarzenegger's failed "reform", and contributes to PRI's Capital Ideas series of short articles on public policy in California.

Mr. Graham speaks frequently on health care reform on radio and television, and at conferences in the United States, Canada, and Europe. He has also worked as a management consultant and investment banker in Canada and Europe and has previously served as an infantry officer in the Canadian Army in Canada, Germany, and Cyprus.

He received his M.B.A. from the London Business School (England) and his B.A. (with honors) in economics and commerce from the Royal Military College of Canada.
